Jack McQueeney is wholehearted about helping people grow, develop, and deepen their walk with the Lord. He believes that as we grow in our love for Christ, we will serve, love, and trust God for the BIG things He calls us to. Together, Jack and Shaunda have been serving with The Navigators since 1985, first with Collegiate Ministry and then at Eagle Lake in 1989. Since 2001, Jack has been the Executive Director of the Glen Eyrie Group, the camp and conference ministries of The Navigators. Jack and Shaunda have been married since 1984. They have four adult children, one son-in-law, a daughter-in-law, and four grandchildren. They love spending time with family, being outdoors, and of course, cheering on the Green Bay Packers!

David Kinnaman is the author of the bestselling books Good Faith, You Lost Me and unChristian. He is president of Barna Group, a leading research and communications company that works with churches, nonprofits, and businesses ranging from film studios to financial services. Since 1995, David has directed interviews with nearly one million individuals and overseen hundreds of U.S. and global research studies. He and his wife live in California with their three children.

Tom Yeakley serves with The Navigators as a staff equipper for next generation leadership couples. He is passionate about “knowing Christ and making Him known” and helping others do the same. Tom and Dana have been on staff since 1978. They were involved in collegiate couple’s ministry, church discipleship ministries, and served in collegiate and community ministries in Indonesia from 1984-1994. After returning to the U.S., Tom served with the U.S. Collegiate and Campus Ministries, U.S. Leader Development team. Tom most recently led as the U.S. Field Director for the Nations, providing leadership for all U.S. cross-cultural ministries while serving as a member of The Navigators’ U.S. National Leadership Team. Tom and Dana have been married since 1973 and have three married children, Michael (deceased), Amy, and Stephen, and eight grandchildren. They have both authored numerous books on discipleship, including Praying Over God’s Promises and The Gentle Art of Discipling Women.

Mark Heffentrager has been on staff with The Navigators since 1998. He is the Director of Eagle Lake Camps and just celebrated his 21st Summer! Mark is deeply committed to developing young people, encouraging them to know Christ and follow him in every season of their lives. He is passionate about guiding our now (and next) generation of leaders in their journeys of connecting business and ministry. He loves a good challenge and his favorite place to watch a sunset is where Jen is, his wife of 19 years. Mark and Jen have three kids ages 10 years-old and younger. When he’s not up at Camp or tripping over Legos, you can find him teeing off on the nearest green.

Shane Klackner is the Day Camp On Location Director at Eagle Lake Camps Day Camps. In this role, he oversees 70 Day Camp programs in 7 states throughout the summer. Shane is passionate about investing in the lives of others, especially the coming generations. Rooted in the Word and in the love of Christ, Shane loves to intentionally build community and call others into a deeper walk of faith in Jesus. When it’s not summer or he’s not hiking in the mountains, you can find Shane catching up on the latest Minnesota Vikings stats and cheering the loudest.

Dr. Jerry White, Major General USAF (Ret), is the President Emeritus and Board Chair Emeritus of The Navigators. Jerry served as the International President from 1986-2005. Jerry is a nationally competitive handball player (currently holding the world title), a licensed commercial pilot, and holds a degree in electrical engineering and a master’s and Ph.D. in Astronautics. He was a Mission controller at Cape Canaveral and in addition to co-authoring a nationally recognized textbook on astrodynamics, Jerry and his wife, Mary, have co-authored numerous books on topics such as work, ethics, relationships and parenting. Jerry and Mary have four children, 11 grandchildren, and live in Colorado Springs.
